Barringtons' Compact Compliance Conference is the perfect opportunity for members of Club Boards to fulfil multiple obligations and learn more about the latest changes and trends in the Club industry, all facilitated at one convenient location, condensed into one day!

Hosted by Jared Barry, Group General Manager, our Compact Compliance Conference brings together our team of experts in Industrial Relations, Sexual Harassment and Bullying, Work Health & Safety, Advanced RCG, AML/CTF and Liquor Compliance to deliver you a comprehensive day of oversight training.

With over 30+ years in the Club industry, Barringtons have a long history in investigations to ensure compliance within the hospitality sector. Our proven background in investigations and compliance, combined with our industry experts, make us the best choice to ensure you and your Club are compliant with your obligations.

In addition to oversight training, this one-day conference will provide several opportunities for you to network with our experts and connect with board directors from other Clubs throughout the course of the day.
